Mr. Bauman L. Belden, Secretary,
The American Numismatic Society,
New York, N.Y.

Dear Mr. Belden, —

I hereby accept associate membership in the American Numismatic Society.

I hope you will pardon my tardiness in replying to your notification; I have been very busy lately.

I send you, enclosed, a check for five dollars and fifty cents, covering my dues for the half year expiring on December 31, and covering the charge for the Bronze membership medal.

With regard to obtaining some of the medals issued by the French Mint, would you advise me to try to get them from the French Consul or from the Mint direct, or is there a method better than either?

Thanking you for your kindness, I remain,

Yours truly,

Henry Goldman.

November 28th, 1911.

Mr. Henry Goldran,
925 Jackson Avenue,
New York.

My dear Sir:-

I have your favor of November 25th with check covering half dues for the current year, $2.50, and bronze membership medal, $3.00. I will forward the medal as soon as it is engraved.

As to obtaining the French Mint medals, I should think the way to do would be to write to the Mint direct, as I do not believe that the French Consul would undertake to get them.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.
